“Mary Beth was my very best 'jazz buddy' the last few years of her life. I owe her a great debt of appreciation for introducing me to the amazing world of jazz both recorded and live. We attended many gigs and her knowledge of jazz was phenomenal. She has left a huge void in my life that will never be equaled. I will never hear a jazz riff or hear someone order a 'vodka stinger', a 'Gran Marnier' neat or a Spanish Coffee without thinking of her....and that will be often, I guarantee. Mary Beth, you are at rest and have joined your beloved brother Dan, your Mom, and all the jazz greats you knew and loved. You will be terribly missed, but remembered so often by all your many, many friends. Love, Ed Bondy
