“ Aunt Mary Ellen was my God-mother and never stopped acting as such, even when I reached adulthood. She continued to remember my birthday and Christmas, and always asked about my boys. For those who may not know, Mary Ellen actually came to live with us when my mom died. I will I always have very fond memories of her.

“ She loved buying gifts for the great grandkids and sending them packages. She was always so thoughtful to include socks and mittens for the kids! The boys', 5 and 3, favorite gift from great grandma were remote control trucks. She empathized many times over the phone with me about motherhood, and told stories of when she raised 4 little ones.
