“ Mary, You fought the ultimate battle with so much courage, strength and dignity. I always knew that you were one strong lady and you proved it to the end. Your pain and suffering have now been replaced with peace. I have no doubt that you and Fred are now cruising around those pearly gates, in a hot rod, looking down at all of us especially at the two of your very best friends your dogs. So as you are waiting by the Rainbow Bridge I know that you will be planning our next "girls" luncheon for when we all meet up again. Always in my heart. Peace and Love Gail

“ We are so sorry to hear of the loss of Mary. She braved and fought the fight of her life, she did so with grace and a smile. Mary is now free of her pain and suffering, going "Home" with our Lord and Savior as well as her beloved Fred, Rick and dad. Our earthly loss is truly Heaven's gain. We offer our thoughts and prayers for you and the family at this most difficult time. She will truly be missed and loved always. May God bless you with peace and comfort. “ I love you more than words can say, Aunt Mary. You have been such an inspiration to me my entire life, teaching me strength, love of family, and what it means to be a good person. I have always believed you deserved the world and I truly hope you have everything you have ever dreamed of in your next life. I know my Daddy will be happy to see you and I can feel the love between you and Fred as you are finally together again. I will truly miss you but, as we talked about, you were ready and I will be happy for you and the beginning of your new life as an angel. You earned those wings a very long time ago and you will, per usual, look absolutely beautiful in them! And I will gladly sing for your life on Saturday, no matter how scary it may be as I know you will be watching over me. I love you forever! Love always, Jessie
