“ To my dear friend Bobby, Your mother would not like for you to cry It's just a part of life to die I know you will miss her and you're sad But dying isn't something bad. Your mother is just beyond your sight She's gone with Angels to the light She sends to you her love From Heaven's gardens up above. She says, I like it here, I'm having fun And I am with The Holy One I am sitting on His knee With Jesus watching over me. So many souls I knew before Were waiting here at Heaven's Door To welcome me with open arms And keep me safe and make me warm. I hear her say, my dear child, when you think of me please smile For I will see you in a while Trust the Lord, don't ask Him why He wants me here to paint the sky With rainbows, clouds and shining lights To brighten days and warm your nights Remember what I said before Please don't cry for me any more. I 'm Heaven's Child, you see I play with Angels surrounding me I can fly with the speed of thought To be with you when you think I'm not So please remember I love you And I know you loved me too And even now, while we're apart I'm still right here ... I'm in your heart. In loving memory of your mother, Mary Kennette God be with and comfort you at this time. Your friend, Linda Peiffer
