“ I am so sorry for your loss. I went to school with Kim and she informed us all of the loss of your family member. My prayers are with your family in this time of need.

“ "Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me. Let my name be the household word that it always was. Let my name be spoken without effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolutely unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is past, nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before, only better; infinitely happier and forever." --Henry Scott Holland

“ Kim & family, I am so very sorry for the loss of your grandmother. Saying goodbye to a loved one is never easy, but rest assured it's not goodbye forever, it's "so long for now" until you meet again. Cherish all the many wonderful memories you have of her and they will help comfort you in the days ahead, to get you through, until your time here is done and you are reunited with her. Your grandma will always be with you in spirit and in your heart. Just think of her and she will be near. I will be praying for you and your family that your heavy hearts are lightened with faith, hope and love. Thinking of you all.... {{{HUG}}}

“ Sue & Wayne, You have our greatest sympathies for you and your family. Sue, I had no idea how much you look like your mom until I saw the picture of her. You can never be prepared for this no matter how much you try. Don't think that we have forgotten to send anything. We're just waiting for you to get home. Love You All....
