“ This photo is the worst picture I have ever seen. It was taken a few days before the death. If there was any way I could delete it I would and put in a proper photo.

“ Hi, Tom. I had been trying to reach Mary through her listing on a high school classmates site, and now I know why she was unable to respond. Mary's death notice was sent to me by Tom Lane of Norwalk. For your information, my Dad died in December 1983, and Mom this past December at age 102. Clark and wife live near Tampa. On July 4th we interred Mom's ashes on Jan's grave at Edwards Grove Cemetery just west of Greenwich. Mom and Dad had kept me informed of their occasional contacts with you, and I was pleased to hear of the success of your career. I'm still a car guy, with a '92 Porsche 968 coupe and a 1962 Jaguar Mark 2 saloon. Please get in touch if this reaches you. 904 541-0108

“ As the third year since your passing nears, I wanted to let you know that I think of you every day and strive to make you and Grandpa proud of me. There is a hole in my heart that will never be filled after losing you. I'm sorry that I didn't visit more while you were here with me and I hope I can make it up to you now by being there for Grandpa when he needs someone. I love you more than I ever told you; I hope somewhere deep down, you knew. I love you, admire you, and miss you more than words could possibly express. Until we meet again, your Granddaughter, Stacey

“ I don't know what to say, except for, I miss her sooooo much. She was always so loving and funny and incredibly strong, through all of her pain. Which makes me feel like a fool for crying about her not being here. I know that she is watching over us, and free from pain, and that makes me so happy, but I selfishly wish that she was still here with us. Grandma, you have been an absolute inspiration to me, and so many others. I know that I've told you before, but I strive to be like you every day. You have always been so beautiful, inside and out, and that is how I will always remember you. I miss you, and I know that some day, we will meet again.
