“ Aunt Mary will always be an unsung hero to me. She always had a smile on her face no matter what came her way in life. I have only the best memories of her in my childhood and adult life. I know she is resting in the paradise of God. May God give her family the peace that only he can bestow. My love and prayers are with you. Love, Carolyn and John Griffith

“ While sad, all I can picture in my head right now is Aunt Mary's great smile that could light up a room. You will be very much missed.
