“ She made awesome pancakes!!! And she would make you as many as you could eat! She always seemed to be a very pleasant person. Our condolences to Mr. Hagedorn, Dan, Pat, and the rest of the family. Love, the Miller Family

“ Dear Uncle Earl and Cousins, I am thinking of you these days as you lay our dear Aunt Mary to rest. The comfort comes in knowing how much she was loved and that you were all able to be with her as she crossed over. I will always remember and admire her as one who smiled easily and in so doing spread warmth and good will to others. Much love from your cousin, Candice Kollar Daughter of Gertrude Brown, Mary Brown Hagedorn's sister

“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. I just went to Sullivan's site to read Laarry's Mom's guestbook entries and saw the name. Lot's of chikdhood memories and growing up on North Wilson. My oldest son even remembers crawling through the milk shoot to unlock the doors because someone was locked out. Ours prayers are with all of you.

“ North Wilson memories, though 45 years have passed, remain dear to me. The Hagedons hold a special place in those remembrances. Even today I can clearly see Mrs. HagedornÆs warm smile and hear her great laugh. It was a privilege to know her. May the support of friends and family and the love of God comfort you in the days ahead.

“ Dear Mary, may you enjoy eternal peace and love that can only be attained in the Heart of our Creator. You are once again in the company of your dear brothers, sisters and parents. Give my love to Sister Pat, I think of her often. I was fortunate to know many of Brown family, their spouses and children, through Sister Pat. God bless you all.

“ I will always remember Aunt Mary's gentle spirit and warm heart. She also made the best cheese cake ever! I will miss her loving smile. The best memory is of the skit to Copacabana with the funny glasses. My prayers are with you all. Love, Therese

“ God has chosen the most precious to be with Him. She will spread her happy personality and smiling face to all the other angels. Mom will be excited to have another sibling "home". We are so sorry for your loss.
