“ Tammy and family, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. When we lose a parent, so many memories come to us-especially the years of growing up together and the lessons we learned. Between all of you children and now, so many grandchildren, your mother and dad sure created something wonderful. I hope and pray that your memories can help you through this difficult time, and that you know, you have an angel up above watching over you all. Take care of each other. Patti
