“ I was so sorry to hear of Mary's passing. I know her as Carolynne's grandmother, and I'd see her at family events and at Caro's house from time to time. Mary was infinitely feisty and determined, yet ever appropriate and gracious. She always lit up when she saw me, gave me a hug, and made me feel incredibly special to be with her. Caro used to tell me that Grandma had said I had the best laugh, but really I think Mary did - we laughed a lot when I was with her and Carolynne, and I remember her as nothing but a bright bunch of sunshine no matter the circumstances. My heartfelt sympathies to her family. Mary was a blessing, and you were all a blessing to her.

“ Connie and Carolynne, You are in our prayers. Mary was a super lady and will be missed. Mary wins in all of this because she is with Jesus. No pain, no tears, only peace and joy. It is still hard for those she leaves behind and we know God will surround you with His loving arms and help you through the difficult times. Peace in Jesus. Sam and Susan
