“ Rick, Your Mother was like a second Mom to me growing up back in the day. I fondly remember the countless times she'd make that extra sandwich for lunch when I was there, or the breakfast after a sleep over. She lived a full life and is up there with your Dad and Sister. I am honored to have known her. Your friend for life, Paul Cusumano

“ We will selfishly miss our Grandma and Great Grandma. Our tears however, were shed in both sadness and joy. Our own reality is depleted with her loss, but the next realm is truly blessed by her peaceful spirit as she continues her journey and joins with the loving souls who have gone on before her. We love you Grandma, and tell Grandpa I want another promotion! The Katich's

“ It was only in the past few years I really grew to know my Aunt Mary. Prior to that, it was the casual hello on holidays or other events. Sitting down talking to her, I realized there was so much more to this woman I had never known. One was her passion for reading, and her ability to keep up with the daily events of the world. She was also very kind and so positive, despite the things she had to endure. I am so fortunate to have gotten to "know" her these past few years as she was a loving, kind woman with a zest for life and people.
