“ I had the absolute privilege of working with Mary at the Miner's Den. She and I were kindred spirits who shared a love of making jewelry, a similar sense of humor and a love of being grammatically correct. I cannot even begin to count the number of great memories I will treasure. She spoke so often of all her nieces and nephews...you could tell she was so proud to be an aunt! RIP, Mary! You will continue to be loved by many!

“ Although I haven't seen Mary in years, my husband Tom and I had the pleasure of knowing Mary and John through the Police Dept. Mary was a very kind and compassionate person and we were fortunate to be able to see both of them professionally and personally. The world was a much better place with Mary and John, and heaven will be more blessed with them back together.
