“ Aunt Mary was such a sweet soul with a smile that lit up the room and a laugh that was contagious. She is finally at peace in her eternal home. We find peace in knowing it is not goodbye, but rather until we meet again. Phil, Dawn, Collin and Sarah Campbell

“ As I look back on the 30+ years I have been a part of this family, I know I have been truly blessed. In all that time, Ma listened without judgement, guided with wisdom and led by example. What a gift she was to me and to anyone she came into contact with. While her place here is empty, her place in my heart will never be. Love you ma.

I can just imagine the reunion taking place at some heavenly kitchen table. Coffee is served, and they're chatting and catching up like only people who've know each other for a lifetime can. You will be missed, Mary. Love Jane and Noah
