“ to the Worswick Family: We have so many lovely memories of your Mom & Dad from their time on Hunters Ridge. Your mother had such a young spirit. We have missed them and still remember them at neighborhood get-togethers. Our sincere condolences.

“ Dear Worswick family, Your parents were special people that we loved while they lived "up north." I was in a stitching group with Betty and she never ceased to make me smile. Such a sweet woman and I was blessed to spend time with her! Funny, she went through my mind just the other day and I wondered how she was. She will be missed by many at Emmanuel Episcopal Church, but we're gladden to have known her and that she lived a life of faith and Godliness. God Bless, Nancy & Bruce Turner
