“ Tillie was my mom's roommate for the last couple of years at Evangelical. What a sweetheart of a lady that I got to know in visiting with my mom. I enjoyed her as much as my mom. My sympathy goes out to the entire family for their loss. Tillie was a great "roomie" for my mom. I will sadly miss her.

“ I wish I could be there but I wanted to let you know you are all in my thoughts. Aunt Tillie managed to be the longest living of all of the ten Rinke siblings. I have so many wonderful memories of her throughout my childhood and later life. She was always there to share whatever she had. She was a wonderful woman and a great aunt and she will be missed.
