“ Sweet Aunt Maudie, you have been such a big part of our life, the precious memories, fun times in Denver, loving our family, your laugh was contiguous and, always made us feel welcome in your home. You are loved by all and will be missed by those that knew you. The angels smiled when you went home, Jesus welcomed you with open arms, and Uncle Clyde there to hold your hand. One day, we will see you again and you will welcome us home. We love you and miss you very much. Rest in Peace dear one!

“ To my precious Aunt Maudie: You were my "Oklahoma Momma." I loved you and you loved me. What a priceless role model you've been in my life. Your kind, sweet, gentle spirit won the hearts of many! Your love for laughter was contagious. I share so many memories of you and I will treasure them until I see you again. Now rest in peace knowing how much you are loved, missed, and remembered. With all my love ... Carol "Rie"
