

Mavis Mary Burr

April 24, 1935 - November 9, 2024

Mavis Mary Burr, age 89, of Royal Oak, passed away on November 9, 2024. She was born to Marshall and Irene Thompson on April 24, 1935 in Ecorse, Michigan. She grew up in Royal Oak and graduated from Clawson High School in 1953.

Strong in her faith, Mavis was an active, long-time parishioner at both St. Dennis and Guardian Angels Catholic Church. And together with her late husband, Mavis contributed to her broader community in Royal Oak through her significant involvement with the Lion's Club, the YMCA, and the Royal Oak Prevention Coalition. Her dedication and energy touched many lives in the area.

An avid card player, Mavis enjoyed many hours of euchre and pinochle in her free time. And as a passionate traveler, she embarked on countless adventures with her husband, exploring the world side by side. She will be dearly missed.

Beloved wife of the late John Burr. Loving mother of Dale (Debra), Donald (Margaret), Deborah (John) Ward, and Deanna Curry. Proud grandmother of Caitlin, Casey, Megan, Eric, Brian, Kevin, Kevin, Julie, and Nicole (Nicholas); and great-grandmother of Dahlia.

Share a memory at www.SullivanFuneralDirectors.com.

Tribute Wall

PR

“ Dale, Don, Deb and Deanna - I have many good memories of Aunt Mavis and Uncle John coming out to visit - we laughed a lot! My sympathies to all of you and your families. Pat Burr-Rosenthal

Patricia A Rosenthal - November 13, 2024 at 04:53 PM