“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins and family, I just heard of Max's passing. I first want to say how very very sorry I am for your extraordinary loss. I can't imagine your pain but want you to know that I will continue to keep you in my prayers. As a new nurse, I was struck by Max's strength, courage and positive attitude towards what he was facing. I was even more struck by your obvious love and concern for him. What a wonderful thing it was to always see a parent at his bedside and siblings. What a loving family I thought. I will never forget Max and what he taught me as a nurse. God Bless each one of you.

“ "God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around you and whispered "come to me". With tearful eyes we watched you pass away and even though we love you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating. Hard working hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove He only takes the best." Our prayers are with you Jenkins family.
