“ Merry ...I can't believe that I do not have one single photo of you and my daughter ... Not ONE! Do you understand the amount of face palming I will forever have to do because of that oversight?! It breaks my heart that you are gone ... But I feel so blessed, so truly blessed, to have known you. To have loved you as an extension of my own mom, and as a grandmother to Victory. The example of Godly woman and devoted wife you displayed for this family is truly incredible. I am thankful you ignored my advice and made back to back full on Thanksgiving meals this past November ... I am thankful I was able to experience your essence in that cottage, listening to you shuffle downstairs to put wood on the furnace in the middle of the night, to sit around the kitchen table after lunch reading Bible trivia ... You were once special woman, loved by so many people. Victory Belle will know for her entire life how deeply you loved her and I, with no questions asked and regardless of whatever situation we were in. You counseled me through so much, always willing to listen and encourage and impart Godly wisdom into the conversation. You loved her the instant you found out about her ... As soon as you heard the news, your first words to me were "WELCOME TO THE FAMILY!" I will miss you more than I can even begin to process ... You're beautiful inside and out, and I am happy for the reward you've finally found, the peace and the joy of being home with the Lord. Well done, good and faithful servant. Always, MaryB.
