*Christ grieves with us and comforts us in times of unbearable grief. If the person we love is taken from us, we should keep his memory in our heart and never stop loving him. Mike was the best friend anyone could ever ask for, and we will miss him. We pray for all of Mike's family. May God touch their hearts and comfort them in their loss. Loving Father, we praise you and thank you for hearing our prayers especially during this time of despair. Amen. With our deepest sympathy,
Lee & Patricia Francis*

“ If it weren't for Mike, I would never have known the exquisite culinary taste of a mustard and peanut butter sandwich. (You can't make something like that up.) My deepest sympathies to your entire family. ~ Dave Coluzzi
