“ I wanted to say how much I will miss Mike. My mom, Vicki had found a good friend, and partner, and he in her. I send a prayer thanking him for being with her. You can never be ready for this. We can only remember the good times and carry on. When I see Mike again, first thing I will say is what we always said to each other. What up doe.....rest in peace Mike.

“ Dave, Deb, Jennifer, Michael, Patricia and the rest of the Brown Family...I know that his time here was short; but, he is with Jesus perfect, whole, running, laughing, having a great time without worries. He is watching over you all. I am praying that God will give you strength to endure cherish all the good times it will truly see you through the days ahead; but, remember that...In God's heart you are: Accepted, Blessed, Chosen, Delightful Free, Irreplaceable, Loved, Strong, Valued, Wonderfully Made...just keep pressing on, and God's love will be with you all the way. May God's Peace and Comfort be with you; for He is the only one that can give us comfort and life everlasting if we believe. With Love, Paula
