“ I remember when Michael and his Mom came to stay with us when he and my children were very young and they had so much fun together. Later in years when I went to Michigan and as always we can't believe our children grow up so fast. He was so sweet and very handsome. He will be missed by so many who loved him, but will always remain close in their hearts to them. Love you all Aunt Jeanne

Shall always remember our camping vacations together. Boating fishing just always a great time spent when we spent them with Mike and Patty. May the lord bless you and keep you in his loving arms. Amen
