“ Our Grandfather will be missed greatly and remembered in our hearts always. His loss leaves not only a void in our lives but many cherished memories to sustain us. Family trips to the cabin in Clare county, his fondness of the races, his abilities as a tailor, his courageous service in the war as a medic and his love of a good game of cards are just a few of the many memories we will hold dear. We know Grandpa is now in heaven with Jesus showing him the room He prepared for him and that he now has all his memories restored and his hurts healed. We love you Grandpa!
