“ Mike was a pro at saying random silly things that just made you laugh and say "Shut up Mike!" He liked to share his ideas. He had an idea for everything and anything, whether you asked for it or not. They always made you chuckle and say things like, "you're such a dork!" He was a big kid which made him so good one the kids in our family. We usually found ourselves saying, "Mike's just kidding." or "Don't listen to Mike" or both along with, "maybe you should be the one watching Mike!"

I am still in disbelief. My heart aches for my cousin, her children and grandchildren thinking about the absence of Mike and the hurt they are enduring.

Mike has been part of my life since before I was in the double digits. He has always been a survivor in my eyes after his horrific motorcycle accident.

I pray for strength, patience and understanding for Anna, her children, grandchildren and all of us during this trying time. Love to all.
