“ *It's May 2018 and I just happened to google Aunt Millie....
Aunt Millie was such a special person to me in my early years. She loved decorating, sewing, crafting and I was always thrilled to spend time with her, Uncle Bud and my cousins. I can still see her wide smile, and hear her laugh.
David and Ron- my deepest condolences.

“ My sympathy to all of the family in the loss of Millie (Grandma Krent), but especially to Ron and Brenda. I know she was a very special lady, so she must have been a wonderful mother too. I'll never forget spending Christmas at her house in Michigan. She was so sweet to me and it was a great time. I felt like family then. She will never be forgotten. Love-Wendy
