“ Aunt Minnie was one of my mother’s dearest friends. My mother, Velma May Curtis, became friends shortly after Minnie moved to Detroit from Philly. Even though my parents moved to San Diego, my mother and Minnie remained in frequent contact. My mother had one of the best birthday surprises of her life when Aunt Minnie, Aunt Betty Brown and Aunt Dorothy Haley flew out from Michigan and one by one rang her doorbell at her home in San Diego to join my mom for a week of birthday festivities. They were like teenage girls in how excited they were to celebrate together. May Aunt Minnie rest in peace. Loved her very much! Peggy Curtis-Martin
