“ I met you so many moons ago when you and Mike were dating and we could all get together and hang out. I thought you were most awesome ! Then I was so thankful when life brought you and Mike back together again, I was always pulling for that ! A fond memory I have is meeting up with you both after one of your visits to the Renaissance festival, in full garb and celebrating with a few drinks, you looked so great and it was so easy to see how much you both loved it and each other ! It was an honor to know you Monica, such a beautiful, brave, funny and strong soul !

“ Second Chances, I'm so glad Monica chose me, Michael J. to be apart of her life. Our hearts are lost with the physical loss of my Moni but found with each tearful memory. Monica's generosity of herself seemed endless for her family and friends. Monica wanted everyone to get along and play nice, a tribute to her mother, Mary Ann. You knew who and where you were in her life. Monica's smile on her face when stories were being told by those who visited and at her bedside was so comforting, she could hear and sometimes contribute a glib word or two. This is not to say those who couldn't visit and kept her in their thoughts were passed on to her. Smiles again on her face would let us know that person was well thought of. Monica's heart was vast and room for us all. Family, friends, co-workers and casual acquaintances all knew she was creative, kind, patient and generous to a fault. This is a small part of my Best friend, wife and lover. Michael J.

I had the privilege of knowing Monica for a brief period of time years ago. She was full of life and laughter, had a beautiful smile and just lit up the room. I enjoyed the time I was able to spend with her. May she rest in peace.
