“ Thank you for being a phenomenal grandmother and great grandmother who had a tremendous source of faith, strength, love for her husband, and joyous pride in all of her family. I will cherish all of the great memories, talks, recipes, crossword puzzles, and card games that we had. My source of strength, determination and perseverance began with you. We will miss you but are joyful that you are in the kingdom with Jesus, mom your daughter Barbara, and healthy once again. Love you always Gma and we will see you again some day. “ We are very grateful to Mrs. Zimmerman for the good fortune of having her granddaughter Myra join our family. Myra is a great blessing to all of us, especially my lucky brother, but really for all of us. And it's said that Myra has a good bit of Myrtle in her. So, many sincere thanks and blessings to you, Myrtle Zimmerman. -- The Michigan and Florida Munroes inlaws
