Nancy (Eckman) Coulon, age 88, joined her Heavenly Father on February 21, 2024. Nancy was born and raised in Mt. Clemens MI and was a proud graduate of Mount Clemens High School. Nancy had a deep and unwavering faith. She was a founding member of St. Matthias Catholic Church in Sterling Heights and was an active member of their Christian Women's group for many years. Nothing made Nancy more happy in life than spending time and talking with her many dear friends, neighbors and her most treasured family. Nancy is the dear sister of the late Richard (late Eugenia) Eckman, the late Gerald (Janice) Eckman and Doug (Sharon) Eckman. She was also a special Aunt to many loved nieces and nephews. Nancy's most valued roles in life were as a devoted wife, loving mother and over the top Nana. Nancy spent a beautiful life with her husband of over 59 years, Richard, who will be waiting for her arrival at heaven's gate. She was a constant source of support and love in her son, Matthew and daughter in law, Amanda's lives. God's greatest blessing in Nancy's life was the addition of her beloved Grandson, Chase. She never missed a chance to tell him how much she loved him and how special he was to her. Her light will be missed tremendously by all who knew her.
