

Nancy Ann Elliott

November 9, 1934 - October 20, 2016

“Hair of Gold, Eyes of Blue”, quote from the Shrine High School 1953 yearbook.

Beloved Mother and friend, Nancy Ann Elliott, 81, passed to the Heavenly Father with her loving family beside her on October 20, 2016. Nancy was the only child of Armand and Evanna (Hurtubise) Millier, born on November 9, 1934.

Nancy grew up in Royal Oak and graduated from Shrine of the Little Flower Elementary and High School in 1953. Competitive and outgoing, she played on the basketball team and was part of the yearbook staff. She went on to receive a degree from Michigan State University in 1955. Nancy married Raymond Elliott in 1956 and raised four children with love, pride, and passion in Troy, Michigan.

She is survived by her four children Peter (Joni) Elliott, Daniel (Christine) Elliott, David (Lisa) Elliott, and Linda Pilot. Grandchildren: Trevor Elliott, Kristen Miller, Alex Elliott, Robert Elliott, Spencer Elliott, Andrew Elliott, Alyssa Pilot, and Joshua Pilot.

We are blessed to have had such a terrific mother. Sunday family dinners, family values, and vacations to wondrous places are gifts she shared that we have now passed on to our own children. Mom was an avid reader and loved playing cards. She was an excellent Bridge player and played in card clubs up to her last year of life. Cherished by many longtime neighbors, friends, and relatives; she will always have a place in our hearts.

Mom preferred not to have a formal service. There will be a celebration of life event at a later date.
