

Nancy J. Horne

August 19, 1948 - August 30, 2016

Nancy (Kelly) Horne died peacefully in her sleep in the early hours of August 30, 2016, eleven days after her 68th birthday on August 19th. Though Nancy was ill for some time, the news reached our ears with shock and disbelief. One family member said, "It feels like an era has passed." And it does: an epic, unforgettable, unmatched era.

Nancy is survived by her husband, John Horne, her sons Jerry Wiles Jr. (Diane) and Paul Horne (Bridget), her daughter Amanda Horne (Frank Haubold), her granddaughters Angelique Wiles and Katarina Wright, her great grandson Aiden Larson, eight grand dogs, nieces, nephews, sisters-and-brothers-in-law and countless other family members and friends who will love, miss and remember her for the rest of our lives.

Nancy was preceded in death by her parents Alberta and Robert Squires, her infant son John, her grandson Jerry Wiles IV, her two older sisters Patricia Ellenburg and Sally Allard and her twin sister, Barbara Rosser. We take comfort in the idea that they are together again.

Nancy earned her living as a waitress and when they both retired, she and

John traveled. They went Up North, they took cruises and visited family in New Orleans, Florida, and California where she fulfilled one of her dreams by attending a taping of The Price is Right. She was an avid bingo player, a lucky ticket winner, a famous concertgoer, a skilled bargain hunter and a grand holder of court at her kitchen table in Shelby Township. If you knew her, you surely have a memory of her involving one or all of these scenarios.

Nancy requested cremation and no services. But she didn't say we couldn't have a celebration of her life; so we're going to, at a date to be determined. Nancy loved you and she loved a good story; so, when the time comes, please plan to bring your favorite Nancy stories and memories, we know you have them and we all know they never, ever get old. We'll laugh, we'll cry, we'll remember together.

“ My sympathy to the family. No one is ever totally prepared for the death of a loved one. When death strikes the pain and feeling of helplessness can seem unbearable. May you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time.-Psalms 55:22

“ Love you Nancy. I know you're with your angels laughing and as free as you were in your life on earth. I will NEVER forget the many great times I had with you. You took me to my first Marilyn Manson concert..smoked flower with me right at the bar. I thought you were the coolest! ❤️

We also had many serious chats about love and life in general and the thing I always loved about you most was your absolute realness and acceptance of everyone. No judging..just love.... Unless someone earned an ass kicking by you...😂😂😂

You're the Best Nancy and you made a huge impact on my life whether you knew it or not. I'm so glad I had the pleasure of knowing you.

I'll see you again my friend. ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Dear Mother, You will always be known as a free spirited, out going, not afraid to speak your mind, extremely loving and caring mom that a son could dream of. I want to thank for being my best friend as well. I had so many great times just playing bingo with you, like the bingo bus trip to Mt. Pleasant, millions of times at American legion hall in Utica, All bingo trips to Canada(which included the casino as well and the duty free store) The wild summer trip to New Orleans we're we played bingo 2 or 3 times a day and Aunt Barbra with those rip off tickets and Drinking Daiquiris! Even growing up I remember you taking Paul and me to watch you play bingo and we always had fun. I remember that big snow storm we had when we were at bingo as kids or playing bingo cards on the side and trying to trade you a bingo card with a wait on it :). Thanks for being an awesome 3 wheeling, yahtzee playing, drive in movie taking, video game playing, and very sharp jigsaw puzzle solving and most important for taking us every where you went, being open, teaching me to be honest and not to be a liar or a theft.

How to be independent. All your hard work you did to make ends meet. For showing me how to strong person and what the word no meant.(you spit fire you ;)). You were one of the best mentors in my life I LOVE YOU SO MUCH FOR THAT! For having an awesome family! I LOVE YOU MOM!!!! As your spirit looks over us for now until we rejoin again I know Jerry and you are our are angel's on earth til our time ends and we are rejoined again So with being said Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us everyday. You will always be loved and never forgotten . Love You, Jerry

“ My Granny Nancy was a great granny. I enjoyed it when she used to take me to estate sales every once in a while. She was a sweet, kind, and caring granny. Some times we would color together. Some times we would even do a little bit of a puzzle together. I loved even just sitting and talking to her. Once while she was in the nursing home Grandpa and me played a game with her and I loved every minute of it. R.I.P Granny Nancy i love you very much.

“ Nancy was a feisty, loving, generous and a fun person to be around. I so enjoyed her delicious dinners and the many visits to her home. She taught me all about estate sales and finding great bargains on our shopping expeditions. She's truly a great lady and will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

“ Dear Mom,

You lived your life like there was no tomorrow as we all should do and I thank you for being such a wonderful Mother and mentor to me, your son. All the sacrifices you have made to provide and care for your family will never be forgotten. You will always be one of my greatest heroes and I look forward to sharing all the great stories and memories of your legacy with friends and family alike. I'm going to miss you but I know you are always going to be with me, so until we meet again I just wanted to thank you again for being you, for being my Mom and for all the things you did and accomplished for your entire family. You had many friends too and they all will never forget the power impact you made in their lives too! I really enjoyed all the conversations we had in this life even as you struggled with your health and made it all look so easy as only a great Mom would do.

*Love You,
Paul*
