“ Dear Nancy Jo, Oh, how I wished to be as beautiful as you when I was a tiny girl. I'll never forget going to my first wedding and seeing you in your beautiful bridal gown. I was so proud that I was that amazing young woman's cousin. My "Aunt" Nancy Jo, named after our Grandfather Joseph, A wonderful man that you or I had never met, but everyone admired. And now, you are both together with Nana. May you be at peace and know that I am looking up to you, just as I did as that tiny young girl back so long ago. With love and admiration, Becky

“ Dear Cousin, When I was a little girl and you were a teenager I thought you were so beautiful. You had long blond hair and were so grown up. I vividly remember one day sitting on your bed watching you curl your hair. You gave me a little lady bug pin. I never forgot that and everytime I have seen a lady bug over the years I have had fond thoughts about you. The animals have another angel in heaven to watch over them. Love your cousin, Cindy
