“ Dear Family, Nancy was almost 10 years younger than me. She was always one of the "little kids" when we were up north with Grandma Iva Lilly so many years ago. She was always so happy - all the memories I have of her have smiles and laughter thru them. She was there in the background in my teenage years but we were too far apart for too many years...and I never got to really know her as a grownup. I wish I had taken the time those years to get to know her better. But somehow, I thought she'd still be here long after I was gone. I was so looking forward to knowing her bright spirit better in the coming years. Dawne is right, family is everything. I wish Nancy had more time with us than she did but she found Larry and had her girls and then there were their kids and a great grandchild too...how wonderful and rich her life must have been. I wish I could hear her tell me about it all. I know we'd be rolling on the floor with laughter. Love to you all,

“ Aunt Nancy was always the funny one in our family, cracking jokes, and making everybody laugh. I remember a specific time when we were at our Grandpa Lilly's house in the late '70s taking home movie pictures of each of the different families. In the middle of the Lambergers turn, Aunt Nancy came running out wearing an old bra on the outside of her shirt, and making funny faces at the camera. She was also extremely creative, making arts and crafts with her hot glue gun. I'll never forget the beautiful hats she made for our Summer Drama production of "Li'l Abner" in 1994, particularly the one with the flower-pot on the top. I love you, Aunt Nancy! I'm sorry I didn't have the chance to say good-bye. Love, Frankie

“ To my Sister's Wonderful Family I can't begin to tell you how full my heart is with sadness, for the loss we have all shared. "MOM" is the cement that holds a family together, but please try hard not to drift apart. No matter how stressed or busy or sick Nancy was, she always was there for me. Family was so important to her. Stay strong and stay close. I love you all. Aunt Dawne
