

Nancy Mikesch

September 15, 1955 - December 9, 2024

Nancy Lee Mikesch (Benbow) born on September 15, 1955, is survived by her son, John William Mikesch, her mother, Marlene Joan Benbow (Fulton), her sister Susan Kay Benbow, her brother, Robert William Benbow, Jr. and her nieces, Mikayla Diane Benbow and Shayna Nicole Benbow.

I believe she would want us to think of this poem at this time:

Do not stand
By my grave, and weep.
I am not there,
I do not sleep-
I am the thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints in snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle, autumn rain.
As you awake with morning's hush,
I am the swift, up-flinging rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight,
I am the day transcending night.
Do not stand
By my grave, and cry-
I am not there,

I did not die.

In Christ, Nancy has joined the people who have gone before her: her husband, Lawrence William Mikesch, her father, Robert William Benbow, Sr., her grandfathers Alfred Stather Benbow and Hugh Fulton and her grandmothers Nanette Benbow (Baur) and Leona Florence Fulton (Mahon).

She was loved and will be remembered.

A private service was held.

“ Ms. Nancy was a beautiful person inside and out. She impacted so many lives with her prayers, her friendship and her kind heart. She brought so much joy to those around her. She never hesitated to stop what she was doing and help others in any way she could. I know God used her in so many ways to uplift others and comfort them and I am definitely one of those people. I loved her very much not only was she a friend to me but always felt like my family. She will be so dearly missed but I know she is at peace with Jesus. I just hope she knows how loved she was and always will be! Until we meet again❤️

“ Nancy was my best friend of 21 years. She was a bright light and her laugh was contagious. She was active with me doing community outreach, prayer groups and ministering for years to youth in need of love and acceptance. The love of Christ shined through her and she was faithful to always pray for others. God used her to touch many lives and she will be forever missed. RIP Nancy. No more pain, tears and sorrow. Only love, peace and joy with Jesus throughout eternity. I love you forever. My deepest condolences to her Mother, Son and family members.
