“ To the family of Nancy Paris...My heartfelt condolences to you all. Nancy and I attended high school and graduated together. We shared many memories over the years. I recall vividly my surprise and pleasure when she called me when she and Bob were in Alaska. They caught me on my last fay at the office.I was retiring that Friday. We had dinner together at the Paris Restaurant, visited and reminisced for the entire evening. We continued our contact with regular lunches up to the present. I will miss her so much.

“ I worked with Nancy for many years. We always had a good time with many good laughs. So sad that we did not get together more often. I feel like we lost one of the November sisters. Three of us celebrated our birthdays within one week. Some memories we shared, make me laugh to this day. May you find peace that she is at rest and in the arms of our Lord.

“ My dear sweet friend, sorry to see you pass away.You were such an inspiration to me , so creative in our crafts & shows. I have deep regrets for not being able to visit and meet for lunch as we previously did. Such fun times we had together, my dear. You have a lovely family who loves you so much.You will be missed. I will never forget your joyous spirit. Margaret Gray

“ Hello, my name is Lyndsey. We do not know each other, but I wish to express my condolences to you and your family during this sad time. The Bible has so much hope for us that can give us comfort during times like these. One of my favorite scriptures is at Revelation chapter 21 verses 3 and 4- "God...will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." So one day in the future, God will wipe away death forever! Your family can look forward to seeing Nancy again happy and healthy! Some other encouraging scriptures can be found at Psalm chapter 46 verse 1, John chapter 5 verses 28 and 29, and Psalm chapter 37 verses 10,11 and 29. I hope these scriptures provide some comfort and hope for your family! Take care!

“ Matthew 11:28 "come to me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Nancy, I know that you are with Him now, at rest and at peace. Rest assured in the knowledge that all of us that you loved so deeply responded in kind and that we will carry our memories of you with us. You will be missed but never forgotten.

Thank you for being such a wonderful mother-in-law and nana.

Love,
