“ Nancy was a person who radiated kindness, generosity and heart. She and our mother/grandmother, Rita Glaysher, were best friends and had years of laughs, late phone calls that went on and on, and many adventures together. When Rita was nearing the end of her life, Nancy was there for her, showing care and compassion and visiting Rita in some of her darkest and scariest times. That was Nancy, a woman who saw the best in people and loved unconditionally. She was at our kids' graduation parties and always inquired about them as the years went on. We considered her part of our family. And now free from sickness she can celebrate and enjoy the afterlife with those she loved on this earth. We will miss you, Nancy, but treasure the many happy times we had together.
