“ Dear Kathy, Bruce and family Neil was a good friend in our years at Church's. It seems that we became closer with the demise of the retail yards as at that time we worked much closer together. Neil was always the gentleman who portrayed honesty to perfection. Always liked and admired by both customer and fellow employees Neil will be greatly missed. Joan and I are sorry we can't be with you all at this time but can only wish the best for all of you. Joan and Bob Hutton

“ As salesman for Celotex Roofing there was seldom a week in 12 years that I did not visit with Neil at Church's after inventorying their needs. I think of him regularly since retiring because I "Renshaw" my big soda bottles. I say "Renshaw" because Neil showed me how to keep the bubbles in the soda by squeezing the air out of the bottle before putting the cap back on. It has worked so well I now have shown countless people how to "Renshaw". MAY GOD BLESS HIS SOUL AND KEEP HIS MEMORY WELL . __dennis.

“ I have wonderful memories of Neil. He was a great supporter of Avondale Basketball while following his grandson Javier. He always took the time to speak with me after the games whether we won or lost. I appreciated that. He was a very generous man and will be missed.

“ I read the Oakland Press on line this morning and was saddened by the passing of Neil. My condolences go out to Bruce and Kathy. Neil taught me quite alot about the lumber business and working for him was an honor. The lessons I learned at Church's I will carry with me forever. My thoghts are with the family during this time. Neil still had a friend all the way out in California. Bill
