“ To the Lenzi family, Son Vincent was in my wedding party in 1964. Classmate and special friend. I knew Mrs. Lenzi and Mr. Lenzi. I am grieving with all of you on your loss. Very truly, Virgil Zanardelli

“ I met Nina Mae at her grandson Richard's graduation party in 1981. Nina suggested that I 'must be the one' as I was dressed in purple, her favorite color. Later I was treated to family favorites, canned cherries and the 'flakiest of crust' fruit pies. I married Rich in 1987 and became an official granddaughter and member of the exclusive 'ladies of the club' which included Leilani, Vivian, Sybil, and Kathy, and outings to the DIA with lunch in Greektown. Through the years, Nina and I frequented the Dollar Store and Mall. Aside from her incredibly sweet and loving nature, I especially admired Nina's devotion to her family, and love of the Arts. Nina was well-read, formally educated, articulate beyond all others, and she exhibited an incredible sense of style, known for her hat collection, of which she wore them well! Nina will be missed, but is resting peacefully in the heartwarming company of her beloved Jiggs, Richie, Vincent, and sweet Leilani. Nite-nite, Nina Mae
