“ I am honored to be a part of this family and to have known Grandpa Sackey. I have such warm thoughts of him. He always greeted me openly and made me smile. I enjoyed his random jokes and funny stories. During one of my last and favorite conversations with him, he told me he really hoped everybody would let him dance at my wedding. He said he was a great dancer and he wanted to show me his moves. Unfortunately, he did not get a chance , but I will always think of him. He and Grandma have done an excellent job keeping their family close. What an example your life has been, I will miss you! God Bless Love, Angela

“ My memories of Mr. Sackeyà Sitting at the dinner table, as a kid, with the Sackey family. Taking me on his familyÆs vacations. Changing the flat tire on the pop-up camper on some highway in Canada while the rest of us stayed in the van goofing around. Allowing us to practice our band in his basementà before we really knew how to play. Coming in to Decker Auto Parts to buy what he needed to repair his kidÆs cars. Selling John Hagle that old Plymouth Valiantà that was such a cool car! Coming to my house on his bicycle to retrieve SteveÆs hat after he and my brother Tommy got in a fist fightà that was 1969! But my number one memory of Mr. Sackeyà is, while walking out of my own father's funeral mass, he stopped me and said ôLarry, IÆve always thought of you as one of my ownö IÆm not sure if I have ever been so honored! I still call him ôMr. Sackeyö out of the respect I have and always have had for him. But now as a father myself, I can more than ever appreciate his integrity, character, and the type of man, and father, he was. I will miss him... but is profound impact will live on.
