“Sad to find this out today...having recently moved back to Metro Detroit, over the years I have often wondered what Norbert was up to. Was a bit taken back to see the name card and seeing that he had passed.

I met him at the start of my career as a clay modeler and for those first few years he was my mentor. Enjoyed hearing his stories of Art Center, his career, his practical jokes, and his art. - a few times I had the privilege of accompanying him to drawing sessions at the Scarab Club. Loved his stories!

Come to think about it his best advice was “...this is the most exciting industry in the world, but the moment it loses its luster and feels like work, get out and do something different for a change...”

I remember he always had a smile and even in his 60's when I knew him his eyes were still bright and full of life. He'd laugh sometimes when I'd call him Norbie.

My condolences to his wife.
