

Norma Runke

March 14, 1929 - December 29, 2015

Norma Runke (nee Marchi), age 86, passed away Tuesday, December 29, 2015 at her home in Rochester Hills, MI. Norma was born March 14, 1929 in Detroit to Joseph and Mary Marchi. Norma was a business owner who enjoyed collecting, selling, and trading antiques. She was a master at organizing and setting up displays for her antique business. She also enjoyed going to flea markets looking for treasures. Norma enjoyed traveling with her late husband Al and going to their cottage on Lake St. Clair. They also enjoyed going to the casino and gambling and playing slots. In her free time she enjoyed sewing and working needlepoint. She was talented at drawing, decorating, and organizing. Norma was a wonderful cook and enjoyed listening to music including bluegrass, Credence Clearwater Revival, and Joe Bonamassa. Norma had a love of dogs and dogs loved her.

Norma's family describes her as a very patient woman, who was also a very good active listener. These qualities made Norma a wonderful mother and grandmother. She will be missed.

Beloved wife of the late Albert Runke who passed away November 19, 2011. Loving mother of Donna (Thomas) Morang, Jack Runke, Amy (Michael) Ludwig; and Scot (Stacey) Runke. Dear grandmother of four granddaughters, Eileen Mornag, Lauren Runke, Megan Ludwig, and Emma Runke; Four grandsons, Eric Morang, Spencer Runke, Nicolas Ludwig, and Luke Runke.

Norma also leaves behind her special companion, her dog, "Buddy".
