“ So sorry about Norm's death. He had a great sense of humor. We attended morning Mass at St. Mary Magdalen for many years. It was a sad time when we didn't see Norm in his chair anymore. We all missed him and Ann. Norm loved the song Morning has Broken and when FR. Bede would say that was the song we would sing Norm would say "All Right" So happy that was included at the funeral Mass for Norm. It brought tears to our eyes, even knowing now he is enjoying eternal life with Jesus and his beautiful wife, Ann.

“ My dad (his brother Bill) would always tell us the story of how Uncle NO-NO would eat his desert first before eating his dinner. Being the youngest he had to act fast! LOL! Maybe that is how he got the nickname NO-NO?
