“ Dear Aunt Dora and Family, We were saddened to hear of Uncle Norm's passing and regretted not being able to attend the memorial service. He left many fond memories; I especially enjoyed his sense of humour. We are thinking of you through these difficult times, and hope to visit you in MI soon.

“ Dear Family, So sorry to hear about your loss. He is in a much better place, but you will miss him. This only makes heaven much sweeter. Do you remember the Fourth of July at your house in Clawson. Everyone piled into a pickup truck with a grider swing in the back, and toured the big city of Clawson? Those are the good memories of Norm that we will always remember. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time. Love you all!

“ I first met Norm at Design Staff in the early 1980's. We shared a common interest in golf and for a couple of years I was lucky enough to have him as a golf partner. His gentlemanly ways in life transferred to the golf course. He, unlike many of us, took bogies and bad scores and let them flitter away because there were worse things in life and after a bad score he said "there is nothing you can do about an errant golf shot, forget it and move on". A lot like life-- see your mistakes , fix them if you can, and move. A lesson well learned. There ABSOLUTELY has to be a golf course in Heaven and Norm will always play "bogey-less" golf up there. My prayers to the family. You've experienced a better life than most because you knew Norm. Enjoy your memories of him. Larry
