“ Norm and Alma Mackie were dear friends of my parents Dave and Sadie Gonynor. Norm was also an investor in my first technology business. Norm attended my wedding in Pennsylvania in 1983. Norm and Alma were delightful people and were like family to us. They loved to laugh and were so kind and generous. I wish I had known that they had passed away to express my condolences. They were special people in my life and will be remembered always.

With love and gratitude that Norm and Alma were part of my life.

“ Norm was a good friend of my brother George. I can remember as a kid going with my parents to Norm and elma's wedding. Norm was always a very kind and gentle person to me and my parents. One thing I remember especially about Norm was when he would watch television he would be like tunnel vision. His concentration on the screen was just something to watch.
