“Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.” It was my privilege to have known Norm. May God comfort you with the words of Norm's (and ours) Savior, who said, "because I live, you will live also." God bless you. Pastor Dave & Linda Winningham, East Lansing, MI.

“To the family of Norman Tiedje : Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ What a servant of the Lord! He had such a kind heart, and was a real servant of the Lord! He gave and gave and gave to the children he taught and all the other faculty members. If anything needed to be fixed with computers, he was there ready to help. He taught me how to use the computer and had the patience of a saint with me and so many others he taught. The kids adored him in 2nd grade. He always took them to his farm and let them have a hay ride and pick pumpkins. It was a real highlight they looked forward to each year. I was blessed to spend some Thanksgiving dinners with him and his family. He grew many fruits and vegetables and shared them with friends and faculty. He had a gift of music which he shared with Trinity. What a great husband and awesome Dad! Thank you, God, that I was blessed to serve with him at Trinity, Utica! Dianne Sundermann

“ My sincere sympathy to the entire Tiedje family. Please take comfort knowing that your loving husband, father, and grandfather is now safely and peacefully in the loving arms of our heavenly Father.

As a teacher, Norm had the most incredible ability to treat each child with love and compassion. He not only taught them their school lessons, he also helped mold their Christian faith as well as their personal moral compass.

Thank-you Norm, for a life well served ~ Lori Coluzzi
