“ Norm, you touched so many lives...but, mostly the love that you gave to my Mother Millie....will last for an eternity. You made everyone that knew you want to be a better person.

“ Dear Family and friends of Norm, I am so sorry to learn of Norm's death. Such a good-hearted and gentle person he was to all of us here at the Babcock Apts. I was at morning Mass with Norm when he attended the Shrine and was thrilled when he began bringing Holy Communion, daily, to his beloved friend, Millie. I was away on vacation for the days of his wake and funeral, but my prayers and condolences are with you all. God bless you! Sister Noreen Ellison
