

Patricia A. Arnold

April 25, 1935 - April 3, 2025

Patricia Arnold (nee Perry), born on April 25, 1935, passed away on April 3, 2025, just weeks before her 90th birthday.

Pat was the devoted wife of the late Bob Arnold, who was a proud Army veteran. Their love story began at age 16 in English class and blossomed into a marriage that spanned 64 joyful years until Bob's passing in June 2020. Their relationship was the kind people admired-playful, affectionate, and always filled with laughter. Bob had a way of making Pat blush with his silly jokes and goofy charm, and he just loved making everyone laugh. One of their favorite things to do together was bowling, and Bob specifically enjoyed golfing as well. They always welcomed the neighborhood kids with open arms and were fondly known as "Ma and Pa" by everyone on the block. They both created an atmosphere of warmth, laughter, and comfort for everyone who was around them.

Together they raised three children: Bobby (Wendy) Arnold, Beth (the late Kerry) Kamieniecki, and Gay Diane Boulter, who sadly predeceased them both. Pat is also survived by her loving son-in-law, Steven Boulter, and her beloved grandchildren: Brandon (Melissa) Boulter, Emma (Nate) Soulje, Kaitlyn Kamieniecki, Breanna (Tyler) Laponse, and Megan Kamieniecki. Her love extended to her great-grandchildren, Aiden Boulter and Alicia Boulter, as well as her cherished fur baby, Millie.

As we say goodbye, we take comfort in knowing that Pat and Bob are reunited at last.

We celebrate their life, love, and beautiful legacy that they built together.
