“ I miss you, Mom! We always knew we were loved and that's a pretty great thing to know as a child and adult. You always said you loved your kids and liked them, too. I'm still mad at you for that plastic guitar that Christmas but I'll forgive you! I'm happy knowing that you are with God, Dad and your parents in heaven. Love, Dan

“ Condolences to the family. I didn't know your loved one, but wish to share some comfort from the Bible. God cares for you and wants to help. This is mentioned in the Bible at I Peter 5:7. Also God will one day end death, pain and mourning, which is found at Revelation 21:4. And He will also bring a resurrection after Armageddon, to this earth, which will then be a paradise. This is at Acts 24:15. I hope you find comfort in these scriptures. JW.ORG

“ Dear Pat~Thank you for all the great times we have shared over so many years. Will miss the phone calls that you started by saying, "Watcha doing?" We know that you are at peace and reunited with Jim and all your Loved ones. So until we meet again, rest in the peace of our Dear Lord. Love Marian & Tom

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you my sweet friend Judy and your entire family. I have so many memories of Pat over all the years. As adults I would always harrass her about calling me when we were teenagers looking for Judy. Then she say " tell her to get home she has ironing to do". That was Pat's line. We had many laughs about that over the years. Special lady that I was so blessed to know and love. RIP

“ Hi Mom, I want you to always know that you will be missed each and every day. The hole in my heart just got bigger today and I don't know if it will ever heal without you and dad in my life. I can't thank you both enough for always being there for me and guiding me to doing what is right. I will talk to you and dad every day and please watch over all of us. I love you so very much and will miss you each and every day. Rest in Peace Mommy Dearest.Dave
