“ I worked for many years at JVS, where Patty was a client in the Adult Day Program. I still vividly remember her first day - I think it was in 1979. She was clutching a stack of magazines & wouldn't give them up, even though we showed her that she had her own locker. It took a while for her to trust us enough to let go of those magazines! Patty was a sweet woman & I enjoyed seeing her when I would stop at the Day Program to visit when I was no longer working there.
