“ Judge Paruch: while I never had the opportunity to meet Pat, you always spoke so lovingly of her, and you had such pride in your heart for the amazing spirit and heart she had. I know that she embodied the true public servant and much like you, she had positive and uplifting energy to share with all. My heart goes out to you and your family - may you be blessed with her love and spirit which will carry on with you and yours. Sending all my support and prayers to you at this difficult time - Sheila McNulty

“ Pat and I finished law school and took the bar exam at the same session February 1993. We were friends in the testing of our education in law. She was a humble, generous sprit. She will be missed. Judith Ralston Ellison
